Judith A. Williams Food Industry Group (PSFIG) Undergraduate Student Leadership Award Nomination

This award recognizes a Penn State Food Science Undergraduate student who has demonstrated exemplary leadership, scholarship, community involvement, and volunteerism. Only undergraduate Food Science students who have completed at least four semesters majoring in Food Science are eligible for this award. Activities prior to college enrollment should not be included. The selection committee, composed of Penn State Food Industry Group (PSFIG) members, will not consider activities prior to college enrollment.

Candidates may nominate themselves or may be nominated by a faculty or staff member, or by a fellow student.

Each nomination is required to include the following:

- application (pages 2-3)
- letter of recommendation from a faculty or staff member from the Penn State Food Science Department.
- personal statement – A personal statement (minimum of 250 words), introducing yourself to the selection committee. The personal statement should include a list of notable accomplishments, explanation why you enrolled in Food Science, why you are applying for this award, and your career aspirations and goals. Attach additional pages to the application, as needed, to complete the required information.

The deadline for submission of applications is April 19, 2024.

Submit applications to:
